COMIX WORLD 230. March 1984. © Clay Geerdes, Box 7081, All Rights Reserved, Berkeley, CA 94707.* Logo by Steve Lafler, whose latest is DOGBOY 3.* I heard a rumor that I'm not doing my newsletter anymore. Funny, how those things get around. If I ever decide to quit laying all this fragmentary stuff on everybody, I'll let you know. Meanwhile, DOPE COMIX 5 just hit the stores. Dope and sex nostalgia by folks like William Wray, Reed Waller, Kaz, and numerous others.* Got THE BIG BOOK OF EVERYTHING from the guys in England. All Hunt Emerson. I met Hunt back in 1978, had him up to the house, fixed some fried chicken, and found out he and Suzy Varty were vegetarians. Can't win 'em all. I interviewed Hunt and Sue, ate the fried chicken, and never heard from either of them again.* I don't know if John D. Richards is a genius or not, but his new book is filled with some of the most incredible design work I've seen since the speedy sixties. $6 a copy from him, 2 Depot Place, Nyack, New York 10960.* Steve Lafler is art director for a new adzine, THE COMIC BLOCK. $1 should get you a sample copy. C. Clay Wilson did the cover of the first one. Foster of #2, POB 19818, Portland, ORE 97219* 15 anniversary of the San Diego Con this year. I'll be going down June 29 for the weekend.* Nice to see Lee Van Cleef as a good guy in THE MASTER. There's an actor who made the transition from heavy to good guy and he makes a nice contrast to all the pretty boy heroes on the little screen. Now if we can just do something for old Jack Elam..* FAMOUS NONEXISTANT UNDERGROUND COMIX: GONE, VELVET VICE, MUTANT LOVE, and STOMP. Somebody ought to publish these titles. They could sell a lot of copies right away.* Guy Colwell, whose INNER CITY ROMANCE COMICS epitomized the reality of the sixties political scene better than most better known ugs, is having a slide show of his paintings at California College of Arts and Crafts, Wed. March 14, at 5:30 in Nahl Hall. Info: 824-1346.* Aardvark-Vanaheim has three new ones out: NEIL THE HORSE 6, CEREBUS 59, and JOURNEY 7.* You reading Howie Chaykin's AMERICAN FLAGG? If you aren't, you're missing one of the sharpest political comix of this decade, a book that reads well on several levels. #10 is just out.* Into belly-dancing? RAKKASAH '84, the 4th Annual Middle Eastern Dance Festival, will happen March 24,25 at the Scottish Rite Temple, 1547 Lakeside Drive, Oakland, Calif. Our own Zahia will dance Saturday night at 8:40. $3 for all those dancing ladies. Be there.* PETUNIA CON is set for Apr. 20-22, Hyatt-Oakland Hotel. Info Box 15, 5825 Telegraph Avenue, Oakland, CA 94609. Dave and Deni Sim are the top guests.* BAD GIRL ART 6 is ready. It has a Holman/Miller cover and is $1.87 pp from CW.* On the flip side, I've run a complete list of my publications. It's complete to date, but as fast as the mini-comix come out, it will be dated in a couple of weeks, but it's better than nothing.

COMIX WAVE PUBLICATIONS

THE COMIX WAVE LETTER is published twice monthly. Subscriptions are $6 for 24, $11 for 48. Subscribers receive two letters each mailing.

COMIX WORLD MINI-SERIES

A mini-comic is approx. 4x5" and has 8 panels or pages of artwork. The form dates back to the 1930's, but it's current popularity is due to the advent of new fast-printing techniques.

DIGESTZINES

DIGESTZINES are 5x7 or 5x8"and usually run 12-24 pages, though they may run any length. COMIX WAVE has two regular titles and some occasional ones.

SUBSCRIPTIONS

Collectors who wish may deposit a sum of money with COMIX WAVE and receive everything that comes out. $20 is the usual amount. Subscribers get an accounting with each order (usually monthly) and are guaranteed a first edition of every comic.

Historial details on the newaves and the underground comix which preceded them may be found in Jay Kennedy's COLLECTORS GUIDE TO UNDERGROUND AND NEWAVE COMIX (1982).
